Dis-Investment in PSUS

500. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item which appeared in the Hindustan Times of 14th November, 1991 under the caption "Public Sector Policy to net 8,000 crores" to the effect that Government will gain this amount immediately because of the new policy of dis-investment in the Public Sector Undertakings;

(b) whether Government have implemented the policy of dis-investment in Public Sector Undertakings;

(c) what other steps Government propose to take to revamp the Public Sector Undertakings in the country; and

(d) what arrangements Government propose to make for such Public Sector Undertakings which are likely to be identified for dis-investment to raise their resources?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI P.K. THUNGON): (a) to (d) Yes, Sir. Besides disinvesting a part of the Government's shareholding in selected Public Sector enterprises, Government is contemplating to revive and rehabilitate the inefficient public sector units to achieve improvement in performance.

Rising prices of cement

501. SHRI JAGESH DESAI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that cement prices are moving up since the begining of the current year;

(b) whether it is also a fact that cement manufacturers have formed a cartel and every week they are increasing cement prices;

(c) what were the cement prices in four metropolitan cities as on 31-12-91 and on 15-2-92; and

(d) what steps Government propose to take to check the rising prices of cement?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI P.J. KURIEN): (a) From the first week of January, 1992, there has been a rise in cement prices particularly in the northern region.
